

Follow My Lead

- HOFMI family member, November 2020

Shake it off, shake it off.
If I didn't give it,
You shouldn't keep it.

Follow My lead and you will succeed.
Don't follow the devil's lead, it only leads to death indeed.
Change your sight in My Light
And resist the devil with a fight

My Light will show, which way to go.
Choose life, choose life.
Resist the enemy's lies and insecurities.
I am your Shepherd, don't you get it?

Don't follow the thief, he is a hireling you see.
Subtle to deceive, and sway you from the truth away,
But chase him and his lies away with My Word, I say.
My Truth sets you free from all the lying traps he lay.

Whom the Son is set free is free indeed.
The devil is like a spider, setting his traps to ensnare you.
So let My spirit lead you and show you My way around them.

When you're up against a wall
With Me you leap over every wall
Nothing can stop you
As My presence go with you
