

The Light

- HOFMI family member, 14 November 2020

Cast the illegal occupant of fear,
Know that I am near
The devil, he is a liar
Who wants your tongue on fire
To speak his desire
To rob you of your promise which in Him are yes and amen

Look at My nature,
I am your Creator
I speak truth and blessings and light - in My light you see the Light
So you can fight the good fight
Faith in Me your weapon
For your enemy to reckon

Strong in the power of My might
So you can fight this fight
Be secure and be assured
The greater One in you
Has not given you the blues
He has given you His armour of light for your fight

Cast out darkness and win every fight
There is no contest as through Me you conquer
You will always have good sight
As long as you are in the light

My Word your weapon
Oh it is so effective
Praise oh praise for you to raise
To set the enemy on flight
And get him out of sight

Praise oh praise oh praise
That's the way for you to raise
Seated with Me you see
In heavenly places you be

Rule and reign with Him
Praise gives you a raise
Praise I say that is the way
